

I just heard that Sinclair Broadcast Group is instructing their 62 local stations to pre-empt regular programming to air a Kerry smear piece two weeks before the election. I believe this would be direct election meddling by a corporate media giant - and against federal election law. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
